

Congratulations to the members of the Sayre Jr. and Sr. High School Forensics Teams and Coaches Barrett, Hickey and Yonkin, for "bringing home the hardware" with their outstanding showing at the January 7th Forensics Tournament! Our Junior and Senior teams took places in nearly every category on the board. They had five first place finishes: Austin Willis- Impromptu & Oral Interpretation, Sarah Polinski- Dramatic Interpretation & Outstanding Speaker, with Christi Friedrichsen and Austin teaming up in Duo Interpretation.

The Redskins swept Oral Interpretation, with Christi Friedrichsen and Emalie Shaffer taking 2 and 3 after Austin. The Skins took two of three in Dramatic Interpretation, with Christi Friedrichsen taking second after Sarah. They also took a second and third in Original Oratory and Extemporaneous (Sarah Polinski).

In Junior High, Mattea Robbins and Alison Hickey teamed to take second in Dramatic Duo, while Cristin Hickey took second in Impromptu. Dylan Conklin took third in Impromptu and Adriana Romano took third in Oral Interp.

Photo Caption:

The Sayre High School Forensics Team, pictured here with their coaches, played host to several NFL teams from around the region on Saturday, January 7, 2012. The Skins put sixteen team members inside the top three spots in almost every one of the competition categories.